Radio Program Founders

The South Bay Baptist Church will start a new type of Daily Vacation Bible School next Tuesday, presenting the Rev. J. C. Brumfield, founder and executive director of "Radio Kids' Bible Club," as leader, according to the Rev. George Cain.

As a prelude to the Bible School, Rev. Brumfield will speak at the 11 a.m. service, Sunday, and again at the 7:30 p.m. service.

The Bible School will meet each afternoon at 2:30, starting next Tuesday through Saturday, Sept. 10. Afternoon meetings will be for children for kindergartners and above. Evening meetings, starting at 7:30, will be for adults with an emphasis on youth.

Radio Kids' Bible Club features a children's choir, with stories about Johnny, Susie, and their friends. It is heard over 123 radio stations.

Colored pictures of the program will be shown at the Bible School. Rev. Brumfield, its originator, recently completed a round-the-world trip, visiting mission fields to study the children of the world. His talks next week will give a report of his impressions. He is the author of more than 20 books, including the Susie and Johnny series, which have been translated into many languages.

Msgr. Collins, Former Marriage Counselor, to Head New Parish

"Joe DiMaggio only bats .400, and we won't expect to do much better than that."

That was what Msgr. Daniel Collins noted about plans for construction of the new St. Lawrence Martyr Church. This is his first experience with a building program. Although he anticipates that many mistakes will be made, he has no doubt at all about the final outcome.

A native of Ireland, he returned only last week from a two-month visit to his homeland as a refresher before tackling the large building project which faces him.

Building Set

As pastor, he is charged with the responsibility of overseeing the building and financing of the work for the new parish.

A veteran of 20 years in the priesthood, he has spent the past two years as pastor of St. James' parish in Redondo Beach. Therefore, he will be well acquainted with many of the members of his new parish, since St. Lawrence's parish will include part of St. James' old parish.

Ordained in Rome, Msgr. Collins came to Los Angeles to handle marriage problems of the Archdiocese, a post which he held for 14 years.

Read Many Books

"I probably have read more books on marriage than anyone else in this area," he noted.

Noting that marriage and divorce figures in Los Angeles were nearly equal last year, he declared, "The best way for a couple to be happily married is to give God his due. I know of no divorce where both husband and wife say their morning and evening prayers."

Ordained in Rome

Msgr. Collins was ordained in Rome, studying at the North American College there, and later studied three years of canon law and one year of civil law. He holds a doctorate of canon law from the church.

He went into the priesthood because, he said, "I like working for others. I think that the secret of happiness is God. There is a great reservoir of consolation in taking time to know God and His tremendous providence."

"In his spare time, Msgr. Collins likes to read and shoot an occasional game of golf.

His headquarters are now at the temporary rectory, 280 Via Linda Vista.

Man Is Child Of God, Says Lesson Topic

Biblical assurance as to man's identity is given in the selections from the King James Version of the Bible to be read during the Lesson-Sermon on "Man" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Isaiah left no doubt about the fatherhood of God when he said, "Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not; thou, O Lord, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting" (63:15).

Mary Baker Eddy adds the appellation Mother to man's heavenly parent in a correlative passage from her textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." "Father-Mother is the name for Deity, which indicates His tender relationship to His spiritual creation. As the apostle expressed it in words which he quoted with approbation from a classic poet: 'For we are also His offspring' (p. 332).

"The Golden Text is from Romans (8:14). 'As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.'"

Christian Hope, Joy Named Sunday Topic

Some of the reasons for Christian hope and joy will be considered in the Sunday morning sermon at Church of Christ, 1217 Cravens Ave., when Mr. Elmer Prout speaks on "But Not a Word" (1 Cor. 13:1-13). The text is taken from II Corinthians 4:8, 9 and 6:8-10.

"Bewitched" will be the topic of the evening sermon, based on a question asked by Paul in Galatians 3: 1.

Lutherans Delay Communion Rite

Communion services usually held on the first Sunday of the month at the First Lutheran Church will be postponed until Sept. 11, according to the Rev. Paul Wenske.

On that date, communion services will be held at the 8 and 10:45 a.m. rites and at the 7 p.m. vesper services, he said.
